

PLEIN AIR PAINTING ON THE YELLOWSTONE

AUGUST 7 – 14, 2010 – PARK CO. MONTANA

Sponsored by the Livingston Center for Art and Culture, a non-profit organization

PROSPECTUS

Surrounded by four majestic mountain ranges, Park County offers a beautiful natural setting for relaxation and recreation along the legendary Yellowstone River. The quaint and quiet town of Livingston is steeped in the history of Lewis & Clark, Calamity Jane and Yellowstone National Park. Visual artists, writers and musicians call Park County home. We invite you to come and experience why so many are drawn to this inspiring area. Artists will be painting from Wilsall to Cooke City and Springdale to the western border of Park County, Montana. Fun activities will be planned throughout the week ending with the Wet Paintings Exhibit.
